Thought for this week:
If you aren't making any mistakes, it's a sure sign you're playing it too safe

Interesting idea isn't it, you need to take risks and learn. What would happen if you took a risk? Try it see what happens (obviously take calculated risks, don't sell your house and use the money to set up your business!)

To do this week - What Are You Willing To RISK?

What I have learnt about myself/my business this week:
